Constitution of the Committee for selection of State Police Service Officers of Dy.S.P. rank fit for appointment on the Ex-cadre posts of District Superintendent of Police's rank in the Police Department.

Government of Gujarat,
Home Department,
Resolution No. DYS.1084/4138/B, Sachivalaya, Gandhinagar.

2nd April, 1985.

There are certain posts of the rank of District Superintendent of Police in the Police Department which are not included in the IPS cadre Schedule of the State. These posts being Ex-cadre (or non-cadre) posts with reference to the I.P.S. cadre of the State, are not posts in the line of promotion of the State Police Service Officers. The State Government are not empowered to create cadre posts in the I.P.S. cadre. However, in the interest of public service, ex-cadre posts of the rank of District Superintendent of Police are created by the State Government. There is no ban on appointment of non-cadre officers on ex-cadre posts in the I.P.S. (Cadre) Rules, 1954.

2. Whenever such ex-cadre posts are required to be filled up by non-cadre officers of Dy. Superintendent of Police's rank, a panel of suitable officers for appointment to such posts should be available. For this purpose, it is necessary to institutionalise the process of selection from the State Police Service officers of Deputy Superintendent of Police rank fit for appointment as S.P./D.S.P./Commandant on the ex-cadre posts of District Superintendent of Police rank by constituting a committee.

:- RESOLUTION :-

In supersession of Government Resolution, Home Department No. DYS.1083/4590/3, dated 3.4.84, Government is pleased to constitute a Committee of the following officers to prepare a panel of the State Police Officers of Dy. S.P. rank fit for appointment on the ex-cadre post of D.S.P. rank:-

- 1) Secretary, Home Department
- 2) Secretary (Per.), G.S.D.
- 3) Dir. Gen. of Police
