Government Resolution GAD No.CDR-1096-636-Inquiry Cell(Part-1), dated 05-09-2005, inter alia provides that anonymous/pseudonymous applications against Government officers/employees should not at all be entertained and that the same should be filed straightaway. However, the Home Department Circular No SVC-1064-22366-H dated 25-03-1968 continue to have the provision for conducting preliminary inquiry even into the anonymous/pseudonymous applications with a view to removing this discrepancy, the Government is pleased to resolve that the sub para (2) of para-1 of Home Department's Circular No SVC-1064-22366-H dated 25-03-1968 should be treated to have been deleted with immediate effect. This means that if any anonymous/pseudonymous applications is received, it will not be necessary for the concerned Department/Office to consult the Vigilance Commission before filing such application.

2. This issues with concurrence of General Administration Department dated 15-10-2010 on this file of even number.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Gujarat.
